Brief record of discussions of the meeting held under the chairmanship of Shri Pratyush Sinha, Secretary (BM) at 11.30 hrs. on 8-9-2003 to review the formulation of Emergency Support Function Plan by the Ministries/ Departments concerned of the Government of India.

A meeting was held under the chairmanship of Shri Pratyush Sinha, Secretary (BM) at 11.30 hrs. on 8-9-2003 to review the formulation of Emergency Support Function Plan by the Ministries/Departments concerned of the Government of India for providing emergency support to the Ministry of Home Affairs in the wake of natural or man made disasters.

2. The list of participants is annexed.
3. Initiating the discussions, Secretary (BM) said that the Ministry of Home Affairs is the nodal Ministry for coordinating relief and response in the event of disasters. Emergency support of other Central Ministries/Departments was necessary for effective and efficient coordination. He further stated that whereas the Ministries have their designated roles for certain types of disasters, the purpose of the present meeting was to underline their support functions for other types of disasters. He informed the participants that in order to facilitate the preparation of a response plan by various departments, the Ministry of Home Affairs had prepared a draft for an Emergency Support Function Plan. The draft was an illustrative and the Ministries could make some modifications to ensure that all necessary information and details were incorporated in it. The draft format was circulated in the meeting and was discussed. After deliberations the following action points emerged:-

- (a) The representatives of the Ministries agreed that the draft format of the Emergency Support Function Plan 2003 was quite comprehensive and that they would be able to complete the details within the given time frame.

- (b) As each Ministry has a different role and responsibility, the draft format could be modified to ensure that all information and details were incorporated into it.
 - (c) The Ministries will identify the resources which are required to be pre-contracted and incorporate those details also into the plan so that in the event of an emergency the supplies/deployment of resources could be ensured timely.
 - (d) The Ministry of Railways needed assistance of MHA in the event of railway accidents of a larger magnitude. A communication in this regard will be sent by the Railways separately to MHA.
 - (e) The Emergency Support Function (ESF) Plan, 2003 will be sent to the Ministry of Home Affairs by all Ministries/Departments concerned latest by 30th October, 2003.
4. Concluding the discussions, Secretary (BM) emphasized the need for preparedness on the part of the Central Government to meet any emergency and advised the representatives of the Ministries to prepare their plan as quickly as possible.
5. The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the Chair.

ORDER

Subject: Deployment of resources in the event of disasters- authorization thereof as per the ESF Plan –2003

The undersigned is directed to say that the Ministry of Home Affairs is the nodal Ministry for coordinating relief and response in the event of both natural and manmade disasters, as per the Allocation of Business Rules. In the event of a disaster, this Ministry is required to provide the emergency support to the Ministry of Home Affairs in regard to the functions listed in the ESF Plan –2003 of this Ministry.

It has accordingly been decided ,with the approval of the competent authority ,to authorize the nodal officers and the designated officers in the field offices of this Ministry to deploy resources in the events of disasters and in accordance with the requests received from the Ministry of Home Affairs as per ESF-Plan 2003.

In case the resources are likely to be deployed for a period exceeding 72 hours , then the officers concerned will obtain necessary approvals of the competent authority for continued deployment. In such a situation necessary approvals may also be obtained for procurement and deployment of pre-contract resources, as the need may be.
